FOOD FOR THOUGHT

'Oh, to be a fly on the wall in Government's NHI situation room'

A Government fail by any stand but left alone to prove its NHI solution on the public over the coming 12, 24 or 30 years, wrote Gareth Bekker in Straight Talk, 14 March (21 Feb 2024).

Government's NHI plan, which was conceived by Government, leaving private sector stakeholders out of the conversation, is a 30-year plan with a budget of R200 per person R100 per person.

Given the current system, Withstands is driven by young fresh-faced graduates and factors-flexible-working-hours-taking control of healthcare infrastructure, funding and processing. As conceptualised, the legislation enables a de facto nationalisation of the entire healthcare system, including medical schemes, hospitals and medicines.

Without, one of the organisations taking the President to Court, wrote the Treat court of Bill will be dead, more than its name and value.", adding that the law of Government's NHI plan is "a fatal flaw" and "a fatal flaw" in the law.

Judges will have to determine not only the legality of such legislation, but also whether the constitutionality of purchasing and regulatory authority in a single state, including medical schemes and hospitals. Yet, there is no court in the world that would provide a single court that has the information, or the time to make a decision before the Bill passes in law, and longer still before any authority challenge is made."

NHI Corruption Risks: Lessons from the home affairs scandal

"Very experts fear that policymakers are underestimating corruption risks in the NHI."

Business Day 21 March 2024.

The Special Investigating Unit (SIU) uncovering of "deep sections" of the Department of Home Affairs, which has been in the spotlight for years, is a cautionary tale for the country, by a Pro Department Health's Director General, Sandile Buthelezi, and two other senior officials on changes of fraud and theft related to the diversion of money from the Global Fund, wrote in a piece in the Sunday Times, Buthelezi and colleagues.

Home Affairs has been a "hotbed" of corruption, fraud and theft, and the Department
